Federal regulations require parents to have the primary responsibility to pay for a dependent student's educational expenses. The U.S. Department of Education does not consider any of the conditions listed below, singly or in combination, as qualifying unusual circumstances meriting a dependency override:

- Parents refuse to contribute to the student's education;
- Parents are unwilling to provide information on the FAFSA or for verification;
- Parents do not claim the student as a dependent for income tax purposes;
- Student demonstrates total self-sufficiency.

CCA understands unusual circumstances occur and some students may have a unique family situation. This form is used for when you have reported your personal, other (or at risk of homelessness) or unusual circumstances on the FAFSA and unable to obtain parental information. If you believe you have an unusual or unique family situation, please complete this form and submit all required documents to the Financial Aid Office.

**Please note: all decisions are made at the discretion and professional judgement of the CCA Financial Aid Office on a case-by-case basis. Submission of this form and supporting documents does not guarantee approval. CCA is not required to perform dependency overrides, and if the financial aid office determines an override is not appropriate, the decision cannot be appealed.*
